

GEORGE H. LINDSAY DEAD.

Was Former Congressman and Active in Brooklyn Politics.

George H. Lindsay, former Congressman and a well known Brooklyn politician, died at his home, No. 40 Bushwick Place, last night. He was seventy-nine years old.

Has it ever occurred to you that if your eyesight is defective you are not at your "best" mentally?

So much of one's success in life depends on clear seeing and thinking.

A pair of the right kind of glasses—if you require them—will often change labor that seems a grind into pleasurable work.

At first indication of eye-sight difficulties have your eyes examined by a competent Doctor (Registered Physician) —care of yours.

If the saving of the Oculist's usual fee of $3 or $5 is an object to you, then come here and have one of our Oculists serve you. Their advice will be frank and without prejudice.

If the need for glasses is indicated we will tell you so and you may purchase them or not —as you please.

Harris Glasses cost $2 or more.

SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK MONDAY WONDERS.

AMERICAN WOMEN MUST GUIDE THEIR EUROPEAN SISTERS

President of Federated Women's Clubs Says They Must Heal Broken Friendships.

To Americanize the immigrant, to work for the betterment of rural life, to help bring together the women of the warring nations of Europe, to make a closer study of Latin-American life and to help uplift the masses are among the most pressing duties of a real American woman, according to the views of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, expressed to-day at the thirteenth biennial convention of that organization held in the Seventh Regiment Armory.

"The American woman will play a most important part in the bringing together of our sisters in war-stricken Europe," said Mrs. Pennybacker. "When the war is over it will take the guiding hand of American women to restore the friendships broken by war."

Mrs. Pennybacker said that many of the moving picture films shown to-day are degrading, and that it was up to the women to stop them. "The movies have come to stay, and if we turn our heads in the right direction we can make the screen one of the most educational factors in American history," she said.

"Pan-Americanism must be made better known," continued Mrs. Pennybacker. "We know more of Europe than we do of our sister countries. The spirit is in the air and we must elaborate upon it. The best way is to have a great congress of women in this country in 1920, at which representative women from all over the country will attend. We are going to do our share toward that meeting, and shortly we shall ask the aid of the National Government to help finance a proposition that will tend to show the world that the American woman knows how."

"Home Making as a Fine Art" was the subject of an address by Dr. George E. Vincent, President of the University of Minnesota. He lauded the work of the real woman, who in addition to rearing a family, takes time to broaden her education and impart her knowledge to others.

William Dudley Foulke, former President of the National Municipal League, discussed "Community Art and the Use of Public Buildings." He said that the art of building can be seen in the rich and poor. This will help develop genius and will tend to make the coming generation study all the harder," said Mr. Foulke.

Dr. Carl L. Alsborg, Chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, Department of Agriculture, of Washington, D. C., gave a detailed address on "Why We Need Uniform Food Laws," and Dr. Lafayette R. Mondell of Yale University spoke on "The Study of Food Values." Other speakers were Lawrence Voller of the National Housing Association on "How Women Can Help Solve the Housing Problem," Miss Sarah Louise Arnold, Dean of Stoughton College, Boston, on "The Child in the Home," and "Clothes and the Woman," by Lady Duff Gordon.

Found Mother Hanging.
BETHLEHEM, N. J., May 25.—Mrs. Mary Hone, seventy-seven years old, of 125 South Street, Christfield, was found hanging in the doorway of her home early to-day by her son, William Hone. She had been sick and frequently complained, her friends say, that she could not stand the pain much longer.

HELD IN $5,500 BAIL FOR PLOT TO SELL NOTES

Adolph de Leeuw Sought to Dispose of Letters Bearing German Embassy Seal.

Adolph de Leeuw, the Hollander who was arrested last night for attempting to sell to Capt. Gaunt, Naval Attaché of the British Embassy, certain letters bearing the seal of the German Embassy, was arraigned to-day in the Centre Street Court before Magistrate Handy, charged with violating Section 104 of the Penal Code, which deals with opening and publishing letters belonging to other persons.

The charge was preferred by George Hoffman, No. 45 Broadway, Secretary to Dr. Heinrich Albert, German financial agent.

De Leeuw pleaded not guilty. The court set the hearing for next Monday. Bail was set at $5,500 after the prisoner had admitted that he had been sentenced to a term of seven years' imprisonment in Buenos Ayres for the theft of $30,000. In default of bail the prisoner was locked up in the Tombs.

De Leeuw has been in this country less than two years and is in business with Felix Malitz, No. 333 Central Park West, exporting cotton and rubber to Holland. He has an office in the United States Express Building.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-Face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine, as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

Last Saturday Before First Summer Holiday---Are You Ready?

Some Very Pretty Frocks for Women—Much Less

100 dresses are $10; three models that earlier were $13.50 to $18.50; chiffon taffeta, and taffeta in combination with crepe Georgette, prettily trimmed with lace.

100 dresses are $15; coat dresses that were $19.50 to $22.50; chiffon and taffeta, crepe banded with silk, some accorcion-pleated.

There is a group of fascinating afternoon and evening gowns at $19.50 and $29.50; afternoon dresses of soiree silk, plaid over-shot taffetas in soft grays, striped silk, polka-dot foulards, taffeta coat dresses with jersey cloth trimmings, crepe meteoers. All much less.

200 New Coats at $25—6 models in serge and gabardine, 6 checks, 2 mixtures, 1 pongee and 1 taffeta; earlier $29.50 to $37.50; belted and plain models; most of them full lined.

Second floor, Old Bldg.

$4 Low-Shoe Day

Saturday, though we shall have all shoes of all kinds and prices for your choosing, we shall put our $4 foot foremost. These $4 low shoes have not their quality and style equals anywhere. No matter what your Decoration Day costume is going to be—silk dress, suit or sports dress, you will find the appropriate shoe here to go with it.

$4 shoes are patent leather, white Sea Island duck, and black calfskin. Pumps, Colonial effects and oxfords. Light and heavy soles.

Main floor, Old Building.

Women's Silk Underwear Never a Sale Like This

We have had sales of underwear that were lower in price than this. But we have never offered women silk underwear of this quality at so little. The silk resembles glove silk, but it is infinitely superior. It is silk jersey knitted, not woven, shining and lustrous.

It is cut full in sizes and lengths. It is even now selling in New York at about one-third more than prices listed below:

Vests, pink or white, Saturday, $2.50.
Combination suits (including 10 Princess combination suits), Saturday, $3.75.
Knickerbockers, Saturday $2.75.
A few corset covers, shirt skirts and drawers in the lot for early comers. Main floor, Old Building.

Silk Dresses for Young Women—A New Purchase

Saturday $18.75, equal to $25 to $28.50 grades. Just 150 of them, and they are so pretty that we wish we had 150 more. Each dress is made in the very latest fashion. Some with the long loose pocketed tunic, others with a defined waistline. Three-fourths of the whole quantity are navy blue, which is the most wanted color. Mostly taffeta, but there are crepe de chine coat dresses in the collection.

Each dress was personally chosen with the coming holiday in mind. We sincerely advise early choosing.

Other Holiday Notes

Sports suits of unlined cordurey are $10 and $17.50. White and colors. Belted styles.

Very smart linen suits, some copies of Lanvin models, $10, $25.50 and $28.50.

White chinchilla coats, light, warm, splendid for beach and motoring wear, $5.50 and $13.75.

Sports coats of khaki-kool, silk jersey, etc., $12.75 to $29.50.

Separate skirts of vicuña flannel, khaki, cordurey, cotton gabardine, cordurey and novelty fabrics, $1 to $13.50.

Prettiest cotton frocks you ever saw, new and fresh as posies, $5.50 to $20.

Sizes 14 to 20 years. Second floor, Old Bldg.

The Surplice and the Broad-Frill Blouse

Copied from Paris Models Received Two Weeks Ago

A most successful combination of beauty and originality has Paris made in the originals of these latest blouses.

Upon their arrival they seemed so different from anything we have had that they were rushed straight to our best workpeople, cut line for line by the Paris blouses, and here they are—copies charmingly Paris-like.

The Surplice Blouse has no fastening other than at the waistline. Made of crepe Georgette in white, flesh pink, orchid and chamois. The collar is hand-embroidered with eyelets and there are just three pleats at top of the frill; its binding is of doubled crepe Georgette to match. $10.

The Broad Frill Blouse contradicts the hitherto logic of blouse originators.

It turns the ruffle up-side down, placing the broad part of the frill where it can gracefully droop over the shoulders. It also is of crepe Georgette in orchid, flesh pink, white and melon. $12.

Sample Blouses $5—Two hundred blouses mostly of crepe Georgette in light shades and white. Many of them frilled and very pretty. All specially priced. One or two of a kind.

Shirtwaists, $2—Holiday waists fresh and attractive, all white or with touches of color. Voile, lawn, lingerie cloth. Third floor, Old Building.

500 Crepe de Chine Blouses, $2.85—A maker's surplus and duplicate styles taken from our own stock that were $3.65 and $3.85. Surprisingly good crepe de chine in rose, white, blue, maize and flesh, also in narrow stripes. Main floor, Old Building.

Holiday Gloves

Country and town sports gloves are these of white doekin and white and natural chamois. Easy to have a fresh pair always—just wash them overnight. $1 for chamois; $1.50 for doekin.

Cool gloves of heavy milanese silk with broad stitching on the backs, are extra good at 75c. Havana brown, gray, tan, white, black.

Main floor, Old Building.

Fine Holiday Suits for Men

$12.50, $13.75, $15.75

Men looking for an inexpensive suit for the coming holiday should visit the Lower-Price Store Saturday. Here they may choose from as fine suits as are made at these prices. Good materials—worsteds, chevots, flannels, in a variety of fancy patterns, including stripes and plain colors.

In styles they measure up to every requirement of good taste—for both men and young men—soft rolling lapels and patch pockets as well as the conservative models.

Men's Panama Hats, $3.75 for $5 and $6 Grades

We get these 288 hats to sell at so little a price now, because we agreed with the maker long ago to take certain of his surplus.

They are all perfect; flap top and telescope crown; natural edge curban brim and pencil curl brim; nicely trimmed; of good color; in all sizes.

288, Saturday, $3.75 each. Broadway cor. Eighth.

The First Corsets Were Worn by Men

So it is supposed. Uncomfortable affairs they were, too, and quite unlike the light, graceful, easy fitting L. R. Corsets that women wear today.

are so fashioned that they give exactly the support that women need.

The lighter models designed for dancing and sports wear are more helpful and healthful than wearing no corset at all would be.

L. R.'s are specialty corsets, and the dozens of models insure every woman's getting a corset that will suit her as if made to her order.

L. R. Bride's Corset of white silk L. R. Heavy Figure Corset, $5. L. R. Full Figure Corset with elastic at back, $4. L. R. Riviera Corset has a straight back, $6. The 1916 L. R. has this year's curved waist. Pink coutil, $5. Other L. R.'s $1 upward.
